LA POSADA TO HOST “A CONVERSATION WITH HENRY WINKLER”

WHAT:

In keeping with the La Posada tradition of enhancing lives through exceptional cultural experiences, we are pleased to introduce the second event in The Art of Living Well Speaker Series. As part of this exclusive speaker series, La Posada is excited to offer its residents and invited guests a once-in-a-lifetime chance to have a conversation with Henry Winkler and hear about his diverse and successful career. He has been involved either as an actor, director, producer – or all three – in dozens of TV and film productions, including his role as a co-star in the NBC reality series that premiered this year, “Better Late Than Never.” From 1974 to 1984, Henry Winkler’s portrayal of The Fonz on the sitcom “Happy Days” made him one of the most recognized actors in the world. He won two consecutive Golden Globe Awards and three Emmy nominations. The iconic leather jacket his character wore on “Happy Days” is hanging in The Smithsonian.

In addition, Winkler has written a series of best-selling children’s novels that have appeared on The New York Times and Los Angeles Times Best Seller lists. Winkler’s books are inspired by his struggles with unidentified dyslexia. The stories offer resilience and hope to any reader who has felt overwhelmed or experienced difficulty with learning or finding a sense of belonging. This special Art of Living Well event is an opportunity for residents and guests of La Posada to hear about Winkler’s life, his love and the lessons he has learned along the way. While the event is not open to the general public, reporters and photojournalists are invited to attend. Video is limited to the first three minutes of the keynote.
